

Freshwater Mollusk Conservation Society
14th Biennial Symposium in Ypsilanti, MI
May 12-16, 2025

Dear FMCS Supporter:

The Freshwater Mollusk Conservation Society's (FMCS) 2025 Symposium will be held in Ypsilanti, Michigan May 12-16, 2025. The goal for this symposium is to highlight the conservation successes and bridges that have been made throughout the last quarter century in mollusk conservation and highlight the distinctive Great Lakes watersheds. The mixers, breaks, and meals provide opportunities for networking among members and attendees.

The FMCS is a not-for-profit, dedicated to the advocacy and conservation science of freshwater mollusk resources. The FMCS symposium provides a great opportunity to network and build relationships with conservation professionals from state and federal government, industry, and conservation organizations. The Society has a membership of 500, and 275 members generally attend the biennial symposia. These professionals are constantly working to conserve freshwater mollusks, and we need your help. We are requesting monetary sponsorship to help cover the costs of the symposia facilities and activities.

Below is a breakdown of our sponsorship levels.
